

Supporting Our People

Helping you manage your own health and wellbeing while looking after others

Are you facing challenges in your work right now?

Whether you're on the front line directly caring for patients or in one of the thousands of essential NHS roles we rely on each and every day, this is a challenging time. We are all working very differently, and combined with the additional pressures of looking after loved ones and anxiety about the future, this is a huge psychological shift.

Now more than ever, you deserve a comprehensive package of emotional, psychological and practical support.

A range of guides, apps and events to support the wellbeing of you and your team is available at people.nhs.uk.

Help Now

Staff support line

In the current climate of increasing pressures on our healthcare system, our NHS people potentially face significant stresses.

We have introduced a confidential staff support line, operated by the Samaritans and free to access from 7:00am – 11:00pm, seven days a week.

This support line is here for when you've had a tough day, are feeling worried or overwhelmed, or maybe you have a lot on your mind and need to talk it through. Trained advisers can help with signposting and confidential listening.

Call: 0800 069 6222

Alternatively, you can text FRONTLINE to 85258 for support 24/7 via text

Bereavement support line

We also have a confidential bereavement support line, operated by Hospice UK and free to access from 8:00am – 8:00pm, seven days a week.

A team of fully qualified and trained bereavement specialists are available to support you with bereavement and wellbeing issues relating to loss experienced through your work.

Call: 0300 303 4434

Bereavement and trauma support line for our Filipino colleagues

There is a team of fully qualified and trained professionals, all of whom are Tagalog speakers, ready to help you at our NHS Bereavement & Trauma Line for Filipino Staff. This assistance is available from anywhere in the country and is provided by Hospice UK.

All calls will be treated in the strictest of confidence and this will be explained to you when you call. This service is available seven days a week, between 8:00am and 8:00pm. You do not need a referral.

To book a consultation, call: 0300 303 1115

Online Support & Counselling

Virtual staff common rooms

In partnership with NHS Practitioner Health, we have been busy developing virtual staff common rooms for colleagues across the NHS and the ambulance sector.

The common rooms are safe and supportive spaces for colleagues to stay mentally well. By joining, you will have time to:

- Reflect
- Share frustrations and experiences
- Find ways to cope with how COVID-19 is affecting your life at home and at work

Hosted by an experienced and approved practitioner, the confidential session lasts one hour and will have a maximum of ten NHS participants.

Online Support & Counselling

Counselling support from ACC

A free service developed and funded by the Association of Christian Counsellors, who are offering up to 10 online or telephone counselling sessions to:

- People working within the NHS who are directly impacted by COVID-19
- People working in residential care homes who have been impacted by caring for those with COVID-19
- Anyone who has been bereaved during this time

The confidential service is open to people of all beliefs and none, and you can ask to be matched on ethnicity.

Financial health and wellbeing support

We recognise that this is a difficult time for our NHS people and we know that financial concerns have consistently been in the top five reasons our people call the free support helpline run by the Samaritans.

So, we've partnered with the Money and Pensions Service to bring you financial wellbeing support to help you manage your finances at home.

NHS people can:

- Join one of our online financial wellbeing events
- Visit the Money and Pensions Service for support, guidance and tools

Health and Wellbeing Conversations: Implementation advice for NHS executives

A guide for executive leaders has been published, offering advice on how to effectively implement Health and Wellbeing Conversations in your organisation. This includes considerations of how to begin implementation alongside the demands of recovering services, winter and COVID-19.

Health and Wellbeing Conversations are supportive, one-to-one discussions focused on building individual and team resilience. They involve the individual staff member and someone they trust such as a line manager, at work at a time and place that suits the participants.

The guide outlines:

- The case for including the conversations in your existing strategy and the underpinning evidence base
- General points to consider on implementation
- Pragmatic advice on how to get started in busy pressured autumn/winter
- Current and future resources

You can access the guidance here: <https://people.nhs.uk/guides/health-and-wellbeing-conversations/>

Support for staff in Social Care

The Department of Health & Social Care has developed additional, specific support available to those in social care, including unique access to:

- Support lines
- Mental health apps
- Bespoke online platform

We've listed some of the support available at <https://people.nhs.uk/help/care-health-and-wellbeing-support/>
